MEMBER HONOURED

Catriona Williams MNZM

Catriona has received further recognition, this time in the 2016 Westpac Women of Influence awards taking out the Community and Not for Profit award. In announcing the award, it was stated that 'For over a decade, Catriona has been one of the country's strongest advocates for those confined to a wheelchair. She has faced a challenge none of us know how we would respond to and glows positivity, confidence and determination. She has dedicated herself to helping others, using her leadership skills to connect Spinal Cord Injury Scientists and Researchers in New Zealand and overseas to collaborate and share their findings. The judges were not only impressed by the millions of dollars Catriona has raised through the Catwalk Trust (which she founded in 2005) but also by her rare traits and characteristics that only a special few in the world possess.' Congratulations Catriona.
