THE CARBINE CLUB OF QUEENSLAND- Special Meeting & Lunch

The D'Arcy Arms on the Gold Coast was again the venue of choice for a Carbine Club Queensland members only luncheon which also doubled as a 'Special Meeting' to introduce and vote on the intake of new members to the Queensland Club. President Peter Ladewig welcomed all members and introduced proposed new members Larry Ralph, Jeff Bignell, George Friend, Tom Reynolds and Richard Towson who were all then welcomed into the club.

With all business for the day finalised the D'Arcy Arms opened the bar and the Guinness began to flow along with plenty of red and white wines to help down a variety of fresh seafood, steak and finally cheeses.

As the sun began to set members were still enjoying the warm hospitality of the D'Arcy Arms which has now become the meeting place on the Gold Coast for visiting Carbine Club members from throughout Australia and further afield who have been spotted downing a Guinness or two.

Carbine Club 'Good Fellowship' was again on show and still alive and well.

The next Carbine Club Queensland lunch is the Cricket Lunch- Bill Brown Medal, Gabba Wednesday 28 October.

THE CARBINE CLUB OF TASMANIA – AGM & DINNER

The Carbine Club of Tasmania held its AGM on Thursday 20 August at the upmarket Henry Jones Art Hotel, followed by a dinner for Members and guests.

President Ross Burridge continues on for another term ably assisted by Secretary Trent Sayers and long serving Treasurer Mike Wisby.

Dinner guests were treated to an insight into the world of crime Melbourne style by author Andrew Rule, co-author of the books that became the basis for the Underbelly TV series.

VALE BRIAN SPEERS

The Carbine Club of Tasmania sadly reports the passing of former President and long term member Brian Speers (pictured) –an active and enthusiastic member of the Carbine Club, Brian was a leading administrator in the world of racing and for the past 6 years was Chairman of Tasracing following on from earlier service with the Tasmanian Racing Club where he was a Life Member, and he also served on the board of TOTE Tasmania.

Brian and his family raced both thoroughbreds and standardbreds with success for many years and his influence and participation in the sport he loved and gave so much to will be sorely missed.
