The Carbine Club of Singapore

The Carbine Club of Singapore held its annual All Sports Lunch on Friday September 18 to coincide with the Singapore Formula 1 Grand Prix. Australian cricketing legend Doug Walters kicked off the afternoon with some fine tales of his punting and drinking prowess! Fortunately for Doug both went hand in hand with his cricket activities! Courtesy of Sky Channel, who are a great supporter of the Club, a moving tribute to Bart Cummings was aired for the first time. This proved a great introduction to Miracle Malcolm Johnston who talked of his love of sport and the thoroughbred. The Big Dipper was his usual outrageous and humble self, but when joined on stage by Dane Swan and Brent Guerra things started to get rowdy. Fortunately a cover version of Daryl Braithwaite's 'Horses' sung by Guerra was enough to cool everyone down and the time had come to adjourn to Brix for the President's Shout.

Importantly, cunning President Brooker took steps to ensure that the food and beverage offering that the Club's lunches in Singapore are famous for remain of the highest standard by inducting Hyatt Executive Chef Lucas Glanville as a Special Member. Lucas, who hails from Melbourne has worked with the Club on every one of its lunches at the Hyatt and was given a rousing welcome by all members.
