CARBINE CLUB OF TASMANIA- DERBY DAY LUNCHEON

February kicked off with the CCTAS Derby Day Luncheon at Elwick Racecourse on Fri 9 Feb where 300+ members and guests enjoyed an entertaining lunch in advance of the Tasmanian Racing Club's Derby Day meeting with the majority of the Carbine Club attendees taking up the opportunity to stay on for the twilight race meeting.

Guest speaker for the luncheon was the recently retired race caller Greg Miles who was interviewed by CCTAS member and media personality Wendy Kennedy in another polished performance by the duo which was greatly appreciated by the crowd.

President of the Carbine Club, Graeme Johnson, visited Tas for the occasion enjoying both the luncheon and TasRacing's special event cocktail party at Wrest Point the following day – another cracker event leading in to the running of the Hobart Cup the next day.

Another Carbiner who enjoyed the luncheon was Leon McDonald from the Carbine Club of South Australia – and why wouldn't he – Leon trained Gogo Grace, the winner of the Bow Mistress Trophy race on Derby Day, one of Tasmania's most prestigious events, and followed that by saddling up Pretty Punk to win the Hobart Cup on Sunday – congratulations to Leon (pictured left) on a magnificent double for him and co-trainer Andrew Gluyas.

ALEX PERONI UPDATE

The Carbine Club of Tas was delighted to welcome home Alex Peroni who is fast making a name for himself on the European racing circuit; Alex has signed with Dutch team MP Motorsport for the 2018 season and his helmet will proudly display the Carbine Club logo.

Alex is on the path to Formula 1 – when he won a race on the demanding Pau street circuit in 2017 he became the first Australian to win a Eurocup race since current F1 star Daniel Ricciardo won in 2008.

Alex gave an update on his action packed 2017, and his aspirations for 2018. For more info on Alex see his webpage at www.alex-peroni.com

SOUTH AUSTRALIA - SUPERCARS LUNCHEON

Supplied by Events Coordinator Ms Robbi Tims and John Condon OAM – Honorary Secretary of CCSA.

The Annual Carbine Supercars luncheon was held at the Adelaide Convention Centre on the eve of the 4 day Adelaide 500 Event. Over 370 members and their guests enjoyed lunch with several celebrations on offer during the day. Chad did ask that all people in the room shouldn't mention the "C" word – Clipsal – but could fluently mention the other "C" word – Coopers!

MC – Chad Neylon hosted the day

We are indebted to both the Cooper Family for their support and indeed the Supercars office who ensure that our luncheon is a great success each year, through their dedicated assistance with drivers and provision of a very engaging MC in Chad Neylon.

L-R: Scott McLaughlin, Tim Cooper AM, Nick Chigwidden, Jamie Whincup and Glenn Cooper AM

This year both Jamie Whincup and Scott McLaughlin were alongside each other with Chad officiating steering the conversation on their very successful season in 2017 – Jamie's overall win of the season in an exciting finish at Newcastle – and Scott's epic fastest lap record breaking effort at Mt Panorama for the Bathurst 1000

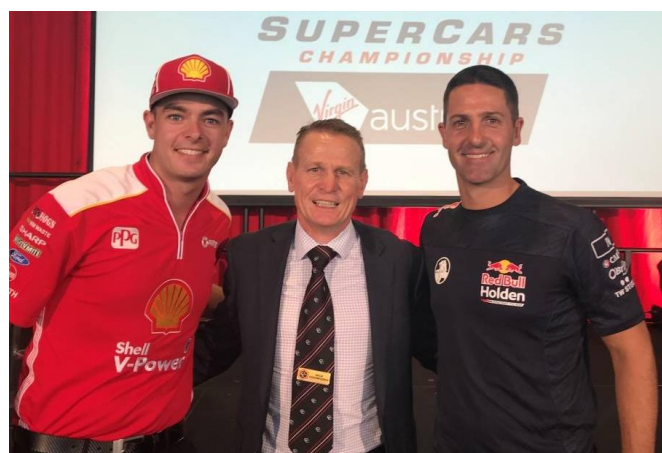

On the panel L-R: Scott McLaughlin, Jamie Whincup and Chad Neylon

Both Jamie and Scott were very humble with their delivery in respect of past seasons, Jamie's new car, the new circuit at Tailem Bend which will see racing for the first time in August this year, along with Scott's marriage proposal to his girlfriend after Bathurst.

This year, coinciding with his very successful Fringe Festival, Lawrence Mooney entertained us after the drivers' panel with some great impressions of Malcolm Turnbull, but more so his expose into the field of prostate checks, how to handle difficult questions from his wife, and what it's like to venture into the hinterland of self-preservation with his teenage daughter's foray into womanhood.

Lawrence at his best – with Coopers in hand!

Guests included Shane Howard, Acting CEO & Cole Hitchcock, General Manager, Communications from Supercars, Tim and Glenn Cooper, and Randal Tomich from Tomich Wines was an exceptional and generous wine sponsor on the day, and brought along his agents from China.

Randal recently won the James Halliday 96points for his 2015 Adelaide Hills Woodside Vineyard Shiraz – we recommend that you buy this as there wasn't one bottle left at the end of the luncheon.

All in the day was a great opportunity for the Members and guests to come together for our first lunch in 2018.

Nick Chigwidden reflected on the many great sponsors we have in Major Sponsor Bank SA, and also Lane Print and Post, along with a heartfelt acknowledgement for John Condon OAM's recent award recognised by the AFL for his six decades in football administration with the Jack Titus Service Award. This is one of the highest awards in the Australian Rules football establishment.

Youth Opportunities were the selected charity on the day, and Peter Carey earned for his organisation over $8,000 to fund a special project for their clients.

Peter Hurley also was acknowledged for his 70th birthday – with Glenn Cooper playing a small joke about Nick Xenophon / SA Best party providing a small cake in recognition of his birthday – needless to say Nick is not Peter's favourite person leading into the SA Election this month.
