GOLF LUNCHEON – Friday 20th July 2018

Attached is the flyer for the next Carbine Club Golf luncheon to be held on Friday 20th July with Phil Tataurangi being interviewed by Phil Gifford. It will be fascinating to hear from this former professional golfer and international commentator on issues such as New Zealand talent, breaking into the international scene and what it takes to succeed.

Please join us and invite family, friends or colleagues along to enjoy this luncheon.

PLEASE NOTE that the room has now changed from that stated in the flyer. The luncheon will now be held in the HUNTERVILLE ROOM IN THE ASCOT (MEMBERS) STAND. TABLES SEAT 8 PEOPLE (not 10) and the ROOM IS LIMITED TO 112 PEOPLE so first in, first served!

QUEENS BIRTHDAY HONOURS

Fiona Allan ONZM

As one of the organisations supported by the Carbine Club, it was very pleasing to see Paralympics New Zealand's Chief Executive Officer Fiona Allan made an Officer of the New Zealand Order of Merit in the Queens Birthday Honours. The Club has acknowledged her honour.

OBITUARY

Graham Davy OBE, a Past President of the Carbine Club died on 18 June 2018. Although Graham had resigned last year, due to deteriorating health, he had been a staunch supporter of the Club for many years. A private family service was held on 21st June.

Regards
