Carbine Club of South Australia – SANFL GF Luncheon

The Carbine Club of South Australia Inc., celebrated the 2019 SANFL Grand Final with a feast of football activity in the William Magarey Room at Adelaide Oval.

Hosted by Channel 7's Sports presenter, Mark Soderstrom, there was a wide range of football identities to speak with and in his most genial way, he was able to get the responses that he was seeking.

On the day David Shipway AM launched a new initiative for SA – Sport scholarship. Indy Tahau a very keen 17-year-old women's footballer from Reynella High School was presented with a cheque to assist her development as a young player.

Mark Soderstrom interviewed Indy who comes from a family of 9 children and enjoys her newfound sport in football.

She is striving to achieve AFL status and hopes to prove herself worthy in the 2020 season.

Glenelg Football Club Coach Mark Stone was very reflective of the season and quietly confident that his team has every chance to pull off the Grand Final this year. The Glenelg season has been consistent having finished minor premiers.

There must be one coach in the mix who could prove that the Magpies will be unstoppable in the Grand Final. Matthew has a baby on the way and will be more than busy in the next few months prior to season 2020.

His form with the team all season has been exceptional and should prove a strong competitor against Glenelg.

The umpires were a talking point for Soda – he always happens to find a “virgin” umpire on the day.

Luke Partington was hard at work studying for his upcoming teaching exams @ Flinders University prior to speaking with Soda – he has achieved the Magarey Medal status this year and will prove that a potential career as a high school teacher will stand him in good stead for his future. Luke is a strong family man and supports his mum and siblings – a very focused player and asset for Glenelg.

Solitaire once again formed a partnership with Carbine Club sponsoring the Guest Speaker – Mark Williams for the luncheon and presented the Jaguar XE and Jaguar F-PACE SVR to our 550 strong crowd.

Key note speaker for the day – Mark Williams entertained the crowd with a very engaging reflection on the Williams family and his meteoric rise to achieve many goals in life, and also now mentors many AFL and VFL players through his business “Champion Teams”.

The Governor His Excellency Hieu Van Le (centre) always attends the footy lunch and enjoys the entertainment. As Patron of the SA chapter, he is very engaged in local events and the SANFL Grand Final is certainly one he is passionate about.
John Olsen AO Chairman of the SANFL Commission (right of Governor) was pleased with a strong SANFL Grand Final coming up between Port Glenelg.

The raffle for Novita always raises a large figure – the box next to Russell Ebert (ambassador for Novita) says it all! Over $16,000 was raised via the raffle and ball ticket – Burley Seekham kindly donated the balls that were raffled on the day too.

The day went well with a very impressive line-up of past players and medalists from days gone by.
