New South Wales – Golden Slipper Eve Racing Luncheon

The Carbine Club of NSW held the Annual Racing Luncheon in the Ballroom at Royal Randwick on 17 March followed by the Golden Slipper Calcutta in 'The Stables'.

Channel 9's Roz Kelly did a sterling job as MC providing an engaging and informative interview with Godolphin Managing Director Vin Cox and member Vince Sorrenti then produced a brilliant comedic performance, as always.

Darren Flindell rounded out the lunch with his usual stirring phantom call of the Golden Slipper. Inglis auctioneer Brett Gilding conducted a thoroughly professional auction that raised nearly $40,000 for junior sport in NSW selling off great items provided by Channel 9, Radio/2GB, the Australian Turf Club, Silverdale Farm, TAB, with Roz Kelly and Inglis assisting with auction items.

A cheque presentation for $2500 was made to Mia Kehoe as one of the Club's Junior Thoroughbred Rider Award winners in partnership with Ranvet. Mia added a sentimental touch to the lunch as the 12yo described her love for her off track thoroughbred, while 15yo Tyla Smith, the other award winner, was unable to attend on the day.

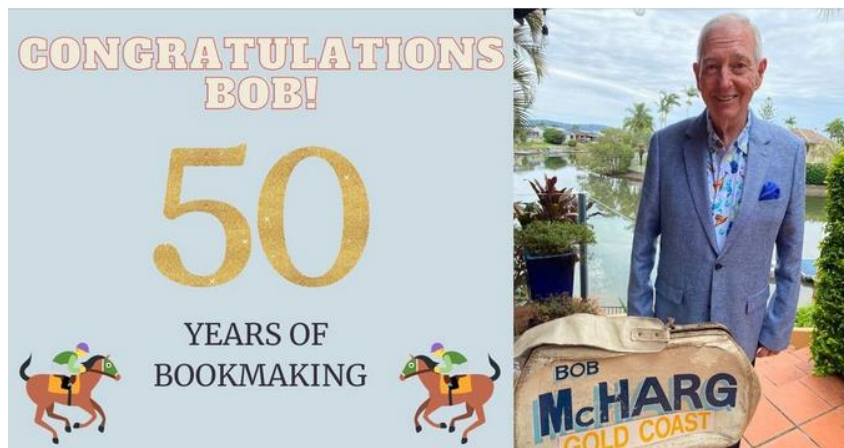

In further NSW news, Last Saturday the 2023 Carbine Club Stakes was run as part of Day 1 of The Championships and won by the Ciaron Maher and Dave Eustace trained The Fortune Teller. Carbine Club members' Philip Neck and Mark Couter were in attendance on the day, also representing the Club.

CONGRATULATIONS

No one would have missed the news that Carbine Club Member Andrew Dillon has been appointed to the AFL CEO role, our heartiest congratulations to Andrew.

We also extend our congratulations to long-term CCQLD Member Bob McHarg who recently celebrated 50 years as a bookmaker!

Plenty of highlights for the busy month of May including in London where the Club is looking forward to seeing fellow Carbiners at this great event - Jeff Thomson and Geoff Miller will be the guest speakers for the Lord's lunch on Monday 19th June. This luncheon marks the 10th Anniversary of the CCL and at Lord's, the first being in June 2013.

CCTAS is keeping up the cricketing theme and Kerry O'Keefe will be dispensing his humour at a luncheon at Blundstone Arena on 12 May; also, on that day CCQLD will be holding a Members Lunch where we believe incoming President Peter Gwynne will be holding forth. In Melbourne a special event on the 25th will farewell outgoing President Andrew Cannon and usher in the reign of Adam Sangster.

A very busy month all round – some Clubs seem to have “dropped off the radar” in terms of giving an update of activities: updates are greatly appreciated as we record the Club's activities for info of all Clubs and Members, and for posterity.
