The Carbine Club- Annual General Meeting

The 61st Annual General Meeting of The Carbine Club was held recently at Crown.

In front of a fine assembly incoming President Adam Sangster welcomed members in the absence of Andrew Cannon, who was unfortunately unavailable due to illness.

The main highlights were a solid 2022 year Financial Report from Treasurer Fred Bayne & the election of 6 new young members to the Club, four of whom are sons of long-term CC members. All agreed this bodes very well for the future.

Following the Treasurer's recommendation supported by the Committee, a total sponsorship allocation of $100k was endorsed by the members. To be distributed equally between proven & worthy recipients, Disabled Sport & Recreation & the Victorian Institute of Sport/Carbine Club Future Talent Program. We were delighted to have DSR/VIS athletes & admin personnel as our guests at the luncheon which followed the AGM.

The conviviality was evident with members enjoying our first get together for 2023. Richard Wilson performed the "roaming Brian" routine chatting with our guests, members & incoming members through a very enjoyable lunch with great food & beverages provided by our good friends at Crown, as always.

Hopefully we can give outgoing President Andrew Cannon a fitting thankyou & farewell dinner as planned for next month. The Club can then look forward to the Annual Delegates Meeting & Dinner at The Australian Club on 27 July. When we will feature a tribute to CC member John Bertrand on the 40th Anniversary of the victory by Australia II in the 1983 America's Cup.

Busy times in London – the team there are ready to hit off on the annual golf day to be held at Royal Mid Surrey on 24 May and the following evening is the CCL Syndicates’ Brigadier Gerard evening at Sandown.

The next event after that is the sold-out Lord’s Ashes Test Lunch on Monday 19th June where the guest speakers are the 70’s and 80’s dominant Australian fast bowler Jeff Thomson and the ever entertaining and extremely funny ex-England all-rounder Geoff ‘Dusty’ Miller.

Now in its tenth year, this is an extremely popular event attracting members from all over.

Other Club events in May include the lunch with Kerry “Skull” O’Keefe at Blundstone Arena in Hobart for CCTAS on 12th, CCQLD also have an event on the 12th with a members lunch at Georges on Sorrento, there’s the AGM & Dinner in Hong Kong on 19th, a golf day for CCNT at Palmerston Golf Club also on the 19th, and rounding out a busy day CCSA have their lunch for The Goodwood Handicap at Morphettville – always a huge day in celebration of great racing.

In Melbourne a special event is a planned dinner on the 25th for the outgoing President, Andrew Cannon meanwhile in Sydney the AGM date has been moved – this will now take place on 1 June.
